Descendants of August Bunte Sr and Meta Garlipp

August Bunte Sr^{1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8,9} (M), son of Andreas Christian August Bunte^{1,2,3,9} and Friederike Charlotte Ganzer^{1,2,9}, was born on 11 Mar 1859 in Coswig, Sachsen-Anhalt, Germany,¹⁰ was christened in St. Nicolai Kirche (Lutheran church), Coswig, Sachsen-Anhalt, Germany, died on 18 May 1937 in Smithville, Bastrop County, Texas,^{11,12} at age 78, and was buried in Bunte Cemetery, Smithville, Bastrop County, Texas.⁹

August sailed from Bremen, Germany, in March 1869 to Galveston aboard the Hannover with his parents and sister. Their last residence had been Coswig, Germany. They were steerage passengers. They arrived at New Orleans, Louisiana, on 6 Apr 1870 and then continued on to Galveston, Texas.

(The first name of Friedrich was given in The Bunte Family History, but he did not use it, consistently using August Bunte or August Bunte Sr.)

August was listed with the family in Industry, Austin County, Texas, on the 1870 census. After his mother died, he went back to Galveston and worked as a cabin boy on the "Revenue Cutter" a government inspection boat for a few months. After that he worked in Houston. He traveled about a while. He met and married Meta Garlipp. He farmed one year in Industry, Austin County, Texas, then moved to Bastrop County in 1877.

At the time of the 1880 census, August was a farmer in Smithville, Bastrop County, Texas. He gave his and his parents' birthplace as Prussia. His age was shown as 22. He and his new family were listed with his father. August's birth date was given as Mar 1858 on the 1900 census. He was shown as 42 years of age and had been married 22 years. He gave his and his parents' birthplace as Germany. His gave his immigration year as 1868 and reported that he had been living in America for 32 years and was naturalized. (He was naturalized in 1936.) He was a farmer in Bastrop County, Texas, and owned his farm free of any mortgage. David Carter, servant, was listed with the family.

At the time of the 1910 census, August had been married to Mary for 2 years. His age was shown as 52. His adopted son Herman, son August, and 2 stepdaughters were listed in the family. He owned his farm in Bastrop County, Texas, free of any mortgage. It was a general farm. On the 1920 census, August gave his immigration year as 1868 and reported that he was naturalized in 1880. His age was shown as 61. He was a farmer, farm operator, and owned his home free of any mortgage. The 1930 census showed that he owned his home on a farm in Bastrop County, Texas. He was shown as 71 years of age. He reported that he was 19 when first married. He repeated the immigration year of 1868 and said he was naturalized. He was a farmer on a general farm.

The naturalization papers of August Bunte show his birthplace as Anhalt. He became an American citizen on 26 Feb 1936 near the end of his life. His immigration information given on that document matches the ship's records.

He was Lutheran, but of the Evangelical synod which wasn't available in Smithville, so he traveled to Austin to attend the First English Church there that was more in keeping with his heritage.

He died as a result of injuries sustained in an automobile accident. The Austin-American newspaper report of 18 May 1937 follows:

SMITHVILLE, May 18.

A highway accident near Austin claimed the life Tuesday of August Bunte Sr, 79, well known resident and landowner near Smithville.

Bunte received his fatal injuries when an automobile driven by A. D. Myer of Smithville left the road and overturned on the Highway 71 detour about four miles east of Austin at 9 p.m. Monday. Myer was blinded by the lights of an approaching truck, it was stated.

Injuries Fatal

Despite Bunte's injuries, not at first thought serious, and minor injuries to Myer, the two men righted the vehicle and continued on to their homes here.

Bunte died about 4 a.m. apparently of internal injuries received in the highway accident.

Funeral Set

Survivors include his widow and four sons, Henry, William, Herman and August Bunte Jr, all of Smithville.

Funeral services were set for Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. at the family home with the Rev. James Aiken officiating. Burial will be in Oak Hill Cemetery at Smithville.

The Smithville Times carried a slightly different report:

Excerpt:

AUGUST BUNTE SR., FATALLY INJURED IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

August Bunte, Sr., 79, was fatally injured when the automobile in which he was riding plunged into a ditch four miles south of Austin Monday night about 1 o'clock and died at his home here at 4:00 o'clock Tuesday morning.

According to information received here, Mr. Bunte, accompanied by Mr. A.D. Myers, who was driving Mr. Bunte's automobile, were returning from Spicewood, when turning the corner off of the detour four miles South of Austin, onto the main highway 71, a truck appeared from off the main highway, the headlights blinding Mr. Myer, and the automobile, a model T Ford, plunged across the highway into a ditch. Mr. Bunte was cut by glass from the broken wind shield and critically injured internally. He was brought to Smithville by a passing motorist and on arrival here a physician was summoned. He was treated for his injuries and taken to his home one mile South of Smithville where he died about 4 a.m. Mr. Myers was not seriously injured it is understood.

Mr. Bunte was born in Germany, March 11, 1858, and at the age of 7 years came to the United States with his parents and a sister, settling at Galveston. He later moved to Bastrop County where he had been a resident for the past 57 years. He was a member of the Lutheran Church and a member of the O.D.H.S. fraternal order.

August married Meta Garlipp,^{14,15,16,17,18} daughter of John Carl Garlipp Jr^{19,20,21,22,23,24} and Anna Margaretha Lammes,^{14,19,20,25,26,27} about 1877. Meta was born in Apr 1857 in Industry, Austin County, Texas,¹⁶ died on 3 Aug 1907 in Smithville, Bastrop County, Texas,²⁸ at age 50, and was buried in Bunte Cemetery, Smithville, Bastrop County, Texas.¹⁷ They had six children: Henry Charles Christian, Fredericka, William Fred, Lena, Herman C., and August Frederick.

Meta was listed in her stepfather's family as though her last name were Koch on the 1870 census in Austin County, Texas. At the time of the 1880 census, she was married to August Bunte and had two children. They were listed with her father in law in Smithville, Bastrop County, Texas. Her age was shown as 20. By the time of the 1900 census, Meta (listed as Middie) had borne 9 children with 4 still living. Her birth date was shown as Apr 1857 and her age as 43. She gave her parents birthplace as Germany.

Her adopted son Herman was her nephew.

Both major references on the family, The Wall Family, 1849-1996, and The Bunte Family History have the birth date as 2 Apr 1858. That places her birth within a few months of the date cut into younger sister Anna's tombstone. Therefore, until evidence shows up disputing that information, I will go with the date given in the 1900 census.--Rose Lee Wall 2010

She was listed on the Texas Death Index as Maida Bunte.

Meta Garlipp^{14,15,16,17,18} (F) was born in Apr 1857 in Industry, Austin County, Texas,¹⁶ died on 3 Aug 1907 in Smithville, Bastrop County, Texas,²⁸ at age 50, and was buried in Bunte Cemetery, Smithville, Bastrop County, Texas.¹⁷

At the time of the 1900 census, Henry was a farmer in Bastrop County, Texas. He owned his farm. His birth date was given as Jan 1879 (the month was written over) and his age as 21. He gave both his parents' birthplaces as Germany. (The birth date conflicts with what he later gave when registering for the draft and his mother was known to have been born in Texas.)

At the time of the 1910 census, Henry was a farmer in Bastrop County, Texas. He was paying a mortgage to own his farm. His age was shown as 32. This was his first marriage and he had been married 12 years. He gave his father's birthplace as Prussia and his mother's as Texas. On the 1920 census, Henry indicated that he was paying a mortgage to own his home in Bastrop County, Texas. He was a farmer, farm operator. His age was shown as 42. He gave his father's birthplace as Germany and his mother's as Texas that year and in 1930. By the time of the 1930 census, Henry owned his home on a farm in Bastrop County, Texas. He was farming a general farm. He was listed as 52 and had married at 20 years of age.

His wife was his first cousin.

Excerpt from an article in the Austin-American, Mar 1955:

SMITHVILLE, March 4

Henry Charles Bunte, 76, pioneer resident of Smithville, died Friday in a Bastrop hospital. He was a farmer and worked until about three months ago when he underwent surgery.

Excerpt from his obituary in The Smithville Times, Mar 1955:

He had been critically ill several times following major surgery in September, but a strong will to live always carried him through each crisis...Most of his life was spent near his father's holdings in Bastrop County. Much of this land was later known as Bunte Town.

Mr. Bunte was a member of the Presbyterian Church, Sons of Herman and Yeoman Lodges. He was interested in many public activities, being connected with the community school board of trustees, and also their census taker for over 40 years. He was outstanding in principles of right and justice, and friends and neighbors came to him for advice and help in time of need.

Her husband was her first cousin.

The Smithville Times, Thursday, 12 Mar 1942 had these comments:

The earlier life of Mrs. Bunte was spent in Burnet County. Mr. and Mrs. Bunte started housekeeping 44 years ago at the same place, where the family now resides, two miles southeast of Smithville in the Lake Farm Community. She was a devout wife and mother, a member of the First Presbyterian Church...She led a very simple but useful life. Her wise council, sending flowers to the sick, vegetables to the needy and other traits of kindness too numerous to mention will long be remembered by more than a few. The latch string always hung on the outside, and no stranger was ever turned away.

publishing world, such as writing for the American Scandinavian Review, working in sales and advertising at the Columbia University Press and in promotion-news for the Episcopal Diocese Bulletin. Later she came back to Texas to work as a reporter and photographer on the Fort Worth Press. While in New York she continued her studies at Columbia, where she met L.D. Clark, another student and also a Texan who became an author. They were married on September 15, 1951, in Smithville. He survives her.

LaVerne's first book, "They Sang for Horses", a study of Navajo and Apache horse mythology, was published by the University of Arizona Press and won the University of Chicago Folklore Prize for 1967. Except for brief intervals, this book has been in print ever since, and in time recognized by the Smithsonian Institution as a classic in Native American studies. In 1962, LaVerne became the founding director of the University of Arizona Poetry Center, and began exploring in writing and photography the poetry of the 1960s and 1970s, later publishing "The Face of Poetry and Focus 101". All along she continued to examine the works of Mari Sandoz, on which she in time produced Mari Sandoz's Native Nebraska. She kept up the writing of fiction too, leading to "The Deadly Swarm and Other Stories" and a novel, "Keepers of the Earth", which earned for her the Best First Novel Award from Western Writers of America in 1996.

LaVerne always went on, too, with graduate studies in her different fields. She received an M.A. in English and Anthropology in 1962 from the University of Arizona, and an M.F.A in Creative Writing there in 1992. Among her other honors, she was a grantee of the American Philosophical Society, a member of PEN, was chosen as a Distinguished Alumna of Texas Woman's University, and a few years ago selected for inclusion in Who's Who in America. She was recently elected to membership in the Texas Institute of Letters.

Although she spent numerous years in New York and Arizona, LaVerne always retained and at length returned to her roots in Texas, coming from a family that dates back seven generations to the original Austin colony.

L.D. Clark

(October 22, 1922 - March 19, 2014)

Our beloved Uncle L.D. Clark, 91, passed from this life on March 19, 2014 in Gainesville, Texas. One of seven children, he was born on October 22, 1922 on the Clark farm seven miles southeast of Gainesville to Tom and Ruby Loyd Clark.

Raised on a farm among generations of his elders that loved to tell stories of family history and their struggles and joys among the river breaks, streams and furrowed fields, he began his education in a one-room schoolhouse called Six Mile (or Hog-Eye) that got its water carried in from a spring in the woods. He graduated from Gainesville High School in 1940. After attending Cooke County College (now NCTC) for one year, L.D. enlisted with the Army Air Corps in August 1942 and served in the Pacific as a gunner and weathercaster on B-24 bombers running search and destroy missions.

After his discharge in 1945, he decided to take advantage of the GI Bill and studied at Columbia University in New York City where he received a B.A., an M.A. and a Ph.D. in English Literature. There in a creative writing class he met the love of his life, a young girl from Smithville, Texas named LaVerne Harrell. They were married on September 15, 1951 in Smithville.

L.D. was as a professor of English at the University of Arizona for thirty-three years in Tucson and also spent time at the University of Nice, Kansai University in Japan and Korea University. Author of fourteen books, he was an avid writer of both fiction and literary criticism and became a well-known scholar of D.H. Lawrence as well as professor emeritus of English at the University of Arizona.

He and LaVerne traveled extensively abroad and in the United States. Upon retirement, he and LaVerne moved from Tucson to her childhood home in Smithville in 1999. L.D. returned to his beloved Cooke County in 2010 to be near his nieces and nephews. He continued to write his last novel, a book of reminiscences and commentary on the great changes that have taken place in our world during his long lifetime.

He was a member of the Cooke County Historical Commission, Cross Timbers Genealogical Society, Great Hanging Memorial Foundation and the Texas Institute of Letters. He dearly loved the Mt. Springs community and performed yearly at the Melodrama.

He was predeceased by his loving wife, LaVerne in 2008, his parents, five brothers, one sister and seven nephews.

He is survived by nieces, Carol Harshbarger, Nell Reta Johnson, Sherri Auchter, Colleen Carri, Renee Clark, and Cindy Mangum and nephews, Miles Ray Clark, Larry Clark, Neil Clark, and Gerald Clark. Also surviving are many great nieces and nephews, great-great nieces and nephews, and two great-great-great nephews.

Uncle LD

eulogy given by niece, Colleen Clark Carri

On behalf of all the Clark family, I want to thank you for being here today. I will try my best to speak up....and not lose it - but no guarantees. So I want you all to sit back, relax - and be joyful with me at times, as that is what he truly would want us to be.

And Uncle LD, if you're listening to me right now - please don't cringe if I should use improper grammar.

Where to begin? How do we say good-bye to the last child of our grandparents, Mammy and Pappy? Our hearts ache that we cannot see his sweet face... and no longer ask him questions that only he would know the answers to....and lean on him for even the smallest of details he stored in that massive brain.

But we aren't the only ones...in recent days, I have heard from so many folks from all over the U.S - his 'reach' was expansive and a bit overwhelming. Just a few of the statements:

"Fun, knowledgeable and incredibly delightful to visit with...his expertise in Native American art helped me get an "A" on my college project."

"With heavy heart, indeed, I received the message about LD's passing. He was a giant figure in the world of literature, especially that part of it dealing with the American southwest and Texas. And, if I may say this as someone who only wishes he'd spent more time with him, L D Clark cast an immense light as a generous, kind and gentle soul whose many friends no doubt felt a shadow pass overhead with news of his death."

"A truly remarkable spirit - who made the difference in the lives of thousands."

"An unforgettable character, with an unmatched character - what a privilege to have known him."

And we were so privileged when he wanted to move back to the Cross Timbers region that he so dearly loved. How unusual and remarkable when at the age of 87, he began a new chapter as he moved back to Gainesville to be near all of his cherished Clark family and beloved Cooke County roots. He certainly didn't let the grass grow under his feet - sit on the porch, and wait for death. He roamed the countryside with us - and would recall the names of the hills and hollers - and creeks - and streams and home-places that once had different names and different homesteaders.

And as Hollis mentioned in the obituary, he became actively involved in the community --- I've said his name so many times since moving to Gainesville, that many of you in this room - not related -- began to call him "UNCLE LD". He became an "uncle" to so many...and like a lovable, old uncle - he endeared himself to everyone.

As we all know, he was one brilliant and talented man....and that he had many great passions in his life - and for life itself.

LaVerne - such a love story they had....My cousins and I remember her fondly too...In in later years when she needed quite a bit of help and endured a few physical challenges, she needed lots of attention. Uncle LD never skipped a beat though, and was totally devoted to her - and waited on her every need. Many of us would stare in awe with his dedication. Sweet story she told me that I have never heard -- In 2006, two years before she died, I was in Smithville as Uncle LD was having back surgery. We left hospital in Austin and headed back to their home in Smithville. We stopped for take-out Chinese food -- came home, opened a bottle of wine - sat at the little kitchen table and she began to tell so many great stories that I had never heard. Camping on their honeymoon - Uncle LD's special spaghetti sauce recipe that he 'sort of stole' from the restaurant he worked at

while going to Columbia University - BUT the BEST was the beachfront campouts on weekends. (Add story about the deserted beaches for sale and hippie story)

Foreign Languages - He was always a little disappointed that none of the family could keep up with his Spanish, French, German or Italian. (Dana -- honey, you came close with your French - he was so proud of that. And the time y'all sang a duet, "O Holy Night" in French at Christmas 3 years ago - what a treasured memory for us all.

BOOKS! - his and everyone else's!! His home could actually be Gainesville's 2nd library. If you had even been in his home, you saw the bookcases in every room...even in the hallway. Even some in the closets. He once told a newspaper reporter "It's kind of funny when you think about it. I started writing with a quill pen and ink bottle and thought I really had it good when I got an old Underwood typewriter." But I can tell you, I'll keep writing until I can't see the keyboard. Or the screen."

Music - Naturally he loved opera and Broadway musicals - but some of you may not know that he owned several guitars...but one very special one. It was Flamenco acoustic guitar.. It was created by a guitar maker and friend of Carlos Montoya - a very famous flamenco guitarist. Carlos and Uncle LD met in Spain in the 70's and became close friends - and visited each other several times in Spain and when Carlos would come to the U.S. to perform concerts.

Anyway -- For whatever reason, Uncle LD decided to sell his guitar before moving to Gainesville. I was a little surprised ...and in January when he was a bit better after his fall and pneumonia, he began to research on how to get that guitar back. Between himself, Keith, Kathy and myself - we were scrambling. No luck - but he was hopeful that one day he could play again. PERSISTENCE - another quality of his.

There are so many things those of us in this room will miss about our sweet Uncle - but there are complete strangers too elsewhere - for example: TWO other important passions:

- Teacher's Scotch company
- Sushi cafes in Gainesville and Denton

Their retail sales will see a huge dip!

By the by - he hadn't been able to have scotch in a few weeks - but he won't get too thirsty on the long road of his current journey. We added a little road trip refreshment. Sooooo - if there are any 'closet scotch drinkers' out there - don't tarry too long as you say your good-byes or your secret will be out!

As for the sushi - sorry, Uncle LD - not happening and I think we can all guess the reason why.

Church Hymns

He never discussed with me the type of services he wanted - except to remind me how much he loved the old church hymns. And boy, could he sing them...For many years he led singing at the Dye Church of Christ.

It may come as surprise to many folks - or not - but for many years he supported churches in small towns by purchasing new hymn books. I knew about two of the churches -- both in Texas. But just recently I have discovered that several churches in small towns across the southern United States have received similar endowment.

Yes - he loved to sing...last performance was Dec. 14 - O Christmas Tree in German

Education

On rare occasion, he would say how he regretted not having children of his own. I told him that he had been a part in more children's lives than any of us ever could. He taught thousands of children/young adults through the years. And through the amazing generosity of Uncle LD and Aunt LaVerne - thousands more will benefit from their commitment to education.

And finally --- his Greatest passion...the Clark Family - Genealogy

So thankful that my grandmother, Mammy, tapped him on the shoulder in the late 50's and begged him to document our family history. His passion for keeping our family history and the stories that were shared - will stay with all of us forever because of his dedication to her wishes.

Time to Say Good-bye

I could stand here - as many of you know - and continue for another 3 or 4 hours or longer and just barely tip the iceberg of blessings that he has left behind. But I'll share one more precious memory - perhaps some of you can see it in your mind's eye.

I think it was the summer of 1961 or 62 when he and Aunt LaVerne were visiting from Tucson during his summer teaching break. As usual, the entire Clark clan is gathered at the farm....eating...telling stories....eating...playing 42....did I mention eating?...and mostly staying outside, as there was NO air conditioning in Mammy and Pappy's house. Scattering under large shade trees, usually the largest gathering was on the front south porch...easily 10 or 12 folks would sit around - waving off flies and swapping stories. It was also the coolest spot for Cindy, Renee and me to sit and play ball and jacks. Now some of the younger folks here - don't know what I'm talking about...Anyway - it wasn't long before our Uncle LD - so very sophisticated, so very educated, (with a little longer hair than my Dad and other uncles) - joined us and sat cross-legged on the porch...and played the game with us. Sometime later he went inside and came out with his guitar, began to play and sing. It was an enchanting image I will never forget.

As I said - I could go and on....as could my cousins...2nd cousins...3rd and 4th cousins.

What a legacy of memories he has left us - and to honor him and our ancestors, please keep these stories and memories alive - write them down, record them...however you can. Share them with your children and grandchildren....let's not ever forget the stories he shared and those our sweet parents told us. He would be so honored to know that we won't allow them to fade away.

Last week he told me he was ready to say good-bye - my brain knew it, but my heart was at odds with his desire. I could hardly respond to his statement - but finally I said - "All right - but when you get to heaven, please send rain." Naturally, I was expecting the usual - bah! Instead ...he whispered to me - "I'll try". And it seems we have a few rain clouds above us today....and the forecast in Smithville calls for rain on Monday.

Thank you, Uncle LD - for touching our lives. It is time for us to say good-bye - but never, never forgotten.^{134,135}

At the time of the 1900 census, Lena and Richard were listed with her parents in Bastrop County, Texas. By the time of the 1910 census, Lena had borne 6 children with all still living. She listed her father's birthplace as Anherst Germany, and her mother's as Texas.

They had six children: Richard August Franklin, Willie George, Mattie, Theodore Louis, Lera Louise, and Frank.

His birth date was given as Mar 1876 in the 1900 census, age 23. It was given as 32 in 1910, 42 in 1920, and 52 in 1930. He also reported on the 1930 census that he was 20 when first married. (He and Lena were married one year in 1900.) So something was reported wrong. The death certificate had his birth date as 18 Mar 1877.

At the time of the 1900 census, Richard and Lena were listed with her parents in Bastrop County, Texas. He was a farm laborer. He gave his parents' birthplace as Germany. Descendants of August Bunte Sr and Meta Garlipp

By the time of the 1920 census, Richard had remarried. Louise age 27 was listed in 1920, Annie age 38 in 1930. His son Richard gave his "mother's" name as Annie Miller, nearest relative, when he registered for the WWI draft in 1918, so this was probably the same person married to Richard. (The obituary of Joseph E. Miller, born 11 Jan 1931-died 21 Mar 2008, gave his parents as Paul Richard Miller and Annie Mary Matula. Rockdale Reporter, 28 Mar 2008.) There were 3 new children by 1920 and another 4 by 1930. Richard owned his home free of mortgage in Bastrop County, Texas, and continued to farm there through 1930. There are a lot of errors or conflicting information between those two census reports. Here are the citations for anyone wishing to unravel Richard's history after his marriage to Lena Bunte:

Lena Bunte^{310,311,312} (F) was born on 10 Oct 1882 in Texas,^{312,313} died on 20 Mar 1912 in Bastrop County, Texas,³¹⁴ at age 29, and was buried in Bunte Cemetery, Smithville, Bastrop County, Texas.

He was listed as Richard Miller Jr on the 1920 census, but used the full name Richard August Franklin Miller on his WWI draft registration. It showed that he worked for P.R. Miller in Smithville, Bastrop County, Texas, as a farmer. (His father was Paul Richard Miller.) He gave his nearest relative, his "mother" as Mrs. Annie Miller. His last residence was on a farm in Bastrop County, Texas, one mile west of Alum Creek. He was a farmer. Social Security Death Index has his death date listed as Jul 1973.

Descendants of August Bunte Sr and Meta Garlipp

Mary Copperath, Mary Kopenrod, Mary Kopenrodt, Mary Kopfenroth, and Mary Koppenrodt.

By the time of the 1900 census, Mary had borne 8 children with 7 still living. She and her husband John Kloth were farming in Colorado County, Texas. On that census, she gave her birth date as Apr 1864 and her year of immigration from Germany as 1883. Her parents were also born in Germany.

Mary was a widow from Nachanitz, a community near La Grange, Fayette County, Texas, when she married August Bunte. She had seven children by her previous marriage and some of the younger children came to live with her and August Bunte after their marriage. According to the census, it was her third marriage and his second. No children were born to this union. Her youngest daughter by her previous marriage Annie M. Kloth married Herman C. (Koch) Bunte, the adopted son of her second husband. Her daughter Mary Annie Kloth married Max Wall.

On the 1910 census, Mary was listed as born in Texas with parents born in Germany. On the 1920 census, she gave her birthplace as Germany and gave the immigration date of 1882 and reported that she was a naturalized citizen. The date is illegible. Her native language was German. The birthplaces were given as Germany in 1930. She reported that she had been 19 when first married.

Information about her immigration was included on husband August Bunte Sr's naturalization papers. According to that, she entered the United States at New Orleans, Louisiana, in Mar 1869. This however exactly matches the information he gave for himself. It was unlikely.

Her children were all raised Catholic.

There are several variations of her maiden name. Son Adam Kloth used Copperath on her death certificate. He reported Kopfenroth on Robert's death certificate. Louise's son reported Kopenrodt on her death certificate. Herman Bunte reported Koppenrodt on Annie's death certificate. Adam's wife Ida reported Kopenrod on his death certificate. Maxine Wall thought it was Koppenrath as did LaVerne Harrell Clark in her Bunte Family History.
